The repair kit includes a replacement mechanism for securing the front wheel that uses a traditional screw on/off method of attachment instead of the quick release lever method of attachment shipped with the product, as well as new warning labels. Push the waist strap into the center buckle to snap it closed. It appears they now only produce the Grand Safari. The Grand Safari has a turnable front wheel (12" in front, 16" rear) with manual lock, plastic rims with air filled tires, a remote locking front wheel, car seat adapter, shock absorbers, canopy mounted speakers (work with most MP3 players), child tray and fleece seat pad. But parents complain extensively about cheap construction and faulty design. The Grand Safari isn't really a jogging stroller. Small retailers nationwide and online at Amazon.com, Target.com, Toys-R-Us.com, Walmart.com and other online retailers from January 2010 through June 2016 for between $130 and $350. The models: Instep used to have a wide variety of fixed wheel and swivel wheel strollers including the Flash, Safari, Twin Flash, Schwinn Turismo and Schwinn Arrow. The firm has received 132 reports of the front wheel becoming loose or unstable, resulting in 215 injuries, including head injuries, sprains, lacerations, bumps, bruises, and abrasions. Push the handle buttons in while moving the handle to adjust it to different heights. Think of it as more of an all-terrain vehicle that looks like a jogger. © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. Report an unsafe product Press and release the storage latch on the stroller's side to unfold the stroller. Place the child in the seat and position the "T-strap" between the child's legs. Pull the stroller up until the side latches lock. Adjust the leg rest by pulling on the side levers and leg rest until set to the desired position. Pieces break, tires go flat, the speakers don't work and more. Lerado (Zhongshan) Industrial Co. Ltd., of China Pacific Cycle Inc., of Madison, Wis. All this for a mere $148. Flip it the opposite way to unlock it. Lift up on the brake bar to disengage the brakes. Keep pulling on the ring and pulling back the seat until you have it set to the desired position. A double version is $250. Our view: But don't kid yourself. A repair video is available at www.pacific-cycle.com/safety-notices-recalls/.
